FIVE WERE KILLED

California Limited Derailed on a Curve Near Medill, Mo.

About Twenty-Three Were Injured—Train Was Running About 65 Miles an Hour.

SPREADING RAILS CAUSED WRECK

Keokuk, Iowa, April 30.—The California limited on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road, eastbound, was derailed on a curve at Cama, a switch five miles west of Medill, Mo., yesterday while going at a great speed. Five persons were killed and 23 injured.

The dining car turned completely over and rolled down a ten foot embankment and two coaches were thrown entirely off the right of way. Traffic was resumed last night. Mr. and Mrs. Gates were en route from Australia and were with their children in the dining car when the wreck occurred. The train was over an hour late and passed Wyconda, the last station west, at the rate of 65 miles an hour. When the heavy train struck the curve at Cama the rails spread.

The train consisted of two mail cars, seven Pullmans and one dining car. The mail car, the dining car, and the two forward sleepers went into the ditch. The derailed coaches were smashed to kindling wood, even the axles being bent out of shape.

The killed: S. T. French, Chicago; Mr. Weithheimer, Santiago, Cal.; a son of Henry C. Gates of Australia, five years old. Two others names unknown.

The injured: — Wetheimer, San Diego, Cal.; little son of Henry C. Gates, Australia; Rufus Buster, Chicago, waiter in dining car; C. C. Fairbanks, Chicago, waiter in dining car. The following injured are in the hospital at Fort Madison: Emil Eitel, Chicago, cut on head and hands; S. Tenner French, Oak Park, Chicago, slightly bruised; W. W. Thomas, Newton, Mass., head cut; J. EIGHT MORE BODIES

Remains of the Steward Found Near the Wreck Yesterday.

It is Possible that Another Victim of the Disaster Has Been Found Lately.

SEVERAL BEYOND IDENTIFICATION.

It is believed that another victim is added to the list of those lost in the Pittsburg disaster. If the name of T. Alom has appeared in the list of dead or saved, it escaped the notice of Manager Clark, of the New City Steam laundry. Saturday evening, when the Pittsburg was here, a gentleman called at the laundry and left ten shirts, eighteen collars and some cuffs and other laundry. He did not say where his home was, but informed Manager Clark that he would call for the laundry when the boat returned to Paducah after her trip to Memphis. He gave the name of T. Alom, and being an unusual name he was asked how to spell it, and spelled it as above.

The laundry is still there, and nothing has been heard from it. Letters have been received in regard to other laundry left there, Steward Bolinger having left two bundles, one of which belonged to him and the other to Mr. Ardue Allen, of Pittsburg.

Mr. R. C. Benner left today for the scene of the wreck, to remain until the remains of Messrs. Hunter and Magill are found. The latter's relatives left him in charge, and he will probably remain until the bodies are found or all hope of finding them is abandoned.

The search with the tug from Cairo has been abandoned, but relatives are still searching in the wreck and river for lost ones.

State Senator H. H. Cummins, of Tidoute, Pa., who has been at the scene of the wreck for the past several days assisting in the search for bodies, with a hope that those of his nephew, Mr. L. L. Hunter, and his friend, Mr. L. B. Magill, has abandoned hope and has probably returned home by this time. A reward of $200 has been offered for the recovery of the bodies, but the conviction that they were destroyed in the flames grows.

Dr. T. M. Daugherty, of Marion, one of those who was on the boat, arrived in the city last night from Cairo. He left today for Marion. Yesterday a picture of his little daughter was found at the wreck. He and his family narrowly escaped, but lost all their household goods. How the picture managed to be preserved is a mystery.

Eight bodies were recovered yesterday, making a total of 46 recovered to date. They were those of William Bohinger, of Cincinnati, the steward, two Burke children, a rouser and the charred remains of a body supposed to be that of Harlow Dow, of Ashland, Ky., and parts of three bodies near the bow of the boat. It was impossible to identify any of the latter or discern the color.

THE WEATHER.

MERCURY WILL GO TO ABOUT 87 TODAY.

The weather has been unpleasantly warm today. The mercury will register as a maximum about 87, but this will not be the highest this year, as it was 89 one day last week. Today the heat has been felt more, however, owing to the moisture in the atmosphere. The weather predictions are: Fair tonight; Thursday, increased cloudiness.

A SLIGHT INCREASE

Miss Ida Leake Still in the Lead for Queen of the Carnival.

Sample Badges Here—Drill of the Knights of Macudap Yesterday Afternoon at 12 & Trimble.

WORK FOR THE SHOW PROGRESSING

Mr. Ed Mumford, chairman of the committee on carnival queen during the absence of Mr. Richard Rudy, desires it known that the contest closes Saturday night. The ballot boxes will be taken up at 8 p. m. and voting may be indulged in from 8 until 10 at the Elks headquarters, a count to be made every fifteen minutes.

Yesterday afternoon there was a pretty drill of the Knights of Macudap at Twelfth and Trimble, and the boys will certainly surprise the people when they are resplendent in uniform during carnival week.

This morning the samples of badges for the carnival committees were received at carnival headquarters and next week the hats will be ready for distribution.

The donations for the carnival will be ready for publication in a few days. Carnival arrangements are progressing rapidly, and everything will begin humming next week.

Many additions have been made to the list of those who will participate in the flower parade. It will be the most beautiful thing ever seen in Kentucky.

The vote for queen is as follows: Miss Ida Leake 741. Miss Anna Boswell 498. Miss Sylvia Callissi 415. Miss Lizzie Sinnott 335. Miss Hattie Terrell 320. Miss Mamie Townsend 355. Miss Faith Langstaff 350. Miss Mary Boswell 330. Miss Martha Davis 302. Miss Ethel Morrow 275. Miss Laura Sanders 296. Miss Maggie Williams 204. Miss Kate S. Plumb 319.

Judge R. T. Lightfoot was in his office this morning and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from his spell of illness.

TO BE BROUGHT HERE

Big Ore Separator is to be Located in Paducah, Without a Doubt.

Authority Comes to Close the Deal and Forward the Deeds to the Property.

WILL MEAN A LARGE INVESTMENT HERE

Today it was definitely decided that the big separator for the Zinc and Fluor Spar company will be located in Paducah. This means ultimately many thousands of dollars invested in Paducah.

The site will be Clements' mill, in Mechanicsburg. Today authority was received to close the deal and forward to New York the deeds and other papers. This was done, and it is announced that the deal is a certainty.

This company is one of the largest that will operate in the counties above. It will get out zinc and fluor spar in large quantities, and will have a mammoth plant here, investing all the way from $50,000 to $250,000.

At the start the plant will not be so large, as the ore is not being taken out as rapidly now as it will be later on. All the capital is eastern capital, and the projectors are going into it right. Representatives of the company will be in the city some time next week.

In its plant here will be employed several hundred men.

HEAVY WINDSTORM

BIRMINGHAM SWEEP BY IT EARLY LAST EVENING.

Birmingham, April 30.—A heavy wind and hail storm passed over Birmingham last night between 7 and 8 o'clock. A small grocery store belonging to John Bierman was blown down. A negro is thought to be under the fallen building. Bierman and two negroes crawled out with scratches. The stacks on the steel plant at the rolling mill were blown down and the entire rolling mill were incapacitated for work tonight. A part of the roof of the Alice furnace blew off and sixty negroes came near being killed. None were hurt, however. Many houses were unroofed. The damage by the storm is considerable.

Attorney W. F. Bradshaw went to Oakes this morning on legal business.

MANY BIG OFFICIALS

Assistant General Manager J.F. Wallace and Supt. Wallace Here.

RUMORS OF CHANGES NOT DISCUSSED.

The local I. C. depot yards presented a busy appearance this morning from 7 o'clock until 8.

The Louisville passenger accommodation train No. 122 brought the special car of Mr. J. F. Wallace, the assistant general manager of the road, from Chicago via Fulton. Mr. H. U. Wallace, his son, was on the car, and will accompany his father and the other officials on the tour of inspection of the Louisville and Evansville divisions of the road.

Mr. J. W. Higgins' coach was brought to the city yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, via St. Louis, and Mr. Higgins remained over all night, leaving on the special train with the other officials this morning. The special train was made up of one regular day coach and the private cars of Mr. Wallace and Mr. Higgins. The following is a list of the officials who left on the train:

Mr. J. F. Wallace, assistant general manager; J. W. Higgins, superintendent of transportation; H. R. Dill, superintendent of the Evansville division of the road and acting superintendent of the Louisville division at present; Mr. H. U. Wallace, the superintendent of the Louisville division, who has been ill at Chicago; Trainmasters T. A. Banks and W. H. Linton of the Louisville and Evansville divisions, and Mr. J. D. Watts, the traveling freight agent of the Louisville division.

The officials are on a tour of inspection of the Louisville and Evansville divisions, and left at 7:45 for Princeton, from where they will go to Evansville, from there to Horse Branch and then into Louisville. The run will be made today, and the trip will be nearly 500 miles.

It is not known why the inspection is being made, but some developments are expected.

Mr. H. U. Wallace is now well, but has lost much flesh from his illness. His many friends were pleased to see him again.

Nothing could be learned relative to the reported change of superintendents and trainmasters of the Louisville division, but the change, if made, will be made the first of the month. None of the officials would talk on the subject. It is not known when the officials will return.

A PLEBISCITE.

PROPOSITION FOR THE SALE OF THE DANISH WEST INDIES.

Copenhagen, April 30.—The bill providing for the sale of the Danish West India Islands to the United States, as amended by the Landsting, came up for discussion in the Folkething with the result that the party in the majority submitted a proposal as follows:

"The Rigsdag—diet composed of both houses—approves the cession, on condition that the inhabitants of the island declare in favor thereof by a plebiscite, similar to the one in 1867." The Folkething, by a vote of 98 to 7, adopted the majority proposition submitted.

FEDERAL COURT OVER

The Session Lasted but Two Days this time—Few Cases Tried.

In Circuit Court Calling the Docket and Hearing Motions all that Was Done.

ONLY A FEW CASES IN POLICE COURT.

FEDERAL COURT.

Judge Evans finished court yesterday afternoon and left for Louisville. The plaintiff won the suit of Edward Langenbach against John Moore and others for the possession of mineral lands near Marion, Ky.

An amended petition was filed in the case of Mrs. Mallonre against the Illinois Central for the loss of a leg in being run over by a switch engine. This carries the case over to the next term.

Neither the case against the city of Paducah for defaulted interests on the railroad bonds nor the one of Roberts and Co. against the city for $10,000 damages went to trial.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Husbands continues to hear motions and demurrers and there was little more done in circuit court today than yesterday. Salem Givens, colored, charged with immorality, pleaded guilty and received a fine of $20. Several continuances were made and orders filed, but other than the above nothing of importance was done today.

The case of Sam Swift against the Hiram Blow Co., for $10,000 damages for the loss of an eye was continued. The damage suit of Jesse Compton against the city of Paducah was dismissed. He was injured by the fire department horses some time ago, and subsequently died.

The suit of Mike Iseman against J. D. Eubanks for the foreclosure of a mortgage of property on North Seventh street on a debt of $700 has been settled by the payment of the debt.

Before adjourning for the day judgments in the following cases were filed: Mary E. Murphy against Allen G. Murphy, the plaintiff being granted an absolute divorce and the restoration of her maiden name, Mary Reeves.

H. L. Whitesides against Linn White, the plaintiff being awarded $3,575.18 debt. The case of Hoffman against George Bernhard was dismissed.

POLICE COURT.

The false swearing case against Thomas Jones, colored, who, it is alleged, swore falsely in a case in which he was the defendant, was continued until tomorrow morning.

James Owens, colored, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

The case against Joe and Maude Titworth, colored, for immorality was continued until Monday. The case will be dismissed as to the man, as a marriage license has been produced. As to the woman, who was lying on a bed with another woman and a man not her husband, the court will have to weigh the law, the question involved being a new one. The case against the same above defendants for running a disorderly house was also continued until Monday.

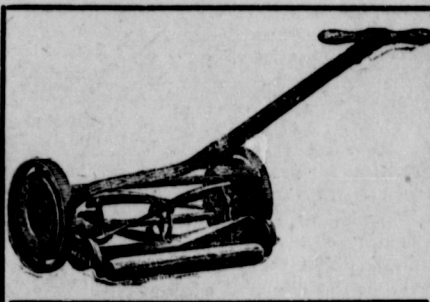

Ellis Drane, colored, who beat his wife and was arrested for the offense and when searched was found to have a pistol concealed on his person, was fined $50 for the former offense and fined $50 and costs for the latter, with a ten days' jail sentence.

Mr. Allan Ashcraft, who graduated at the Indianapolis Dental college day before yesterday, will arrive in a

One of the very best things to encourage money saving with all classes is the Home Savings bank which the Citizens' Savings bank of this city is distributing among its depositors.

The above cut will give a good idea of just what it is. The little safe is oxidized and nicked steel with a combination lock and is very handy and convenient. The money slot will receive any size coin. The key to the bank is to be kept at the Citizens' Savings bank, so that the safes can only be opened at the office of the bank.

Those banks or safes are to be loaned to persons desiring them and in consideration of the bank lending one to a customer he is to deposit its funds at least once a month. On getting one of the banks the depositor has to deposit one dollar with the bank as security for the loan of the bank and when he surrenders the bank this dollar is returned to him.

These banks are being used with the greatest success in all the eastern cities and will no doubt prove profitable in Paducah. They are excellent things for anyone, for all classes.

You have in your home a bank always open for deposits. You can drop in small amounts you would not take to any bank, thus preventing you from spending them. Money kept loosely near at hand affords a continuous temptation to wastefulness. You cannot shake or get your money out, as the bank holds the key; you consequently do what you ought—bring or send the bank to the bank, have its contents counted and placed to your credit, where it will be a continual reminder, urging you to add more to it. Many persons waste in a lifetime enough to make them independent.

For Children: This is one of the best plans ever devised for encouraging economy and frugality, as money once placed in the safe cannot be taken out except at the bank, and there it must be deposited. At the same time it gives a child valuable business experience, and the first lessons in economy are more easily learned if the savings are for some fixed and definite purpose.

Laboring men or women who are able to lay aside only a small amount daily or weekly will find these safes the most convenient and effectual means of saving.

For anyone. Take one of these safes, make it an inviolable rule to drop some amount, no matter how small it may be, into it every day, and you will be astonished and delighted at the close of the year to find how much you have accumulated. Nobody saves in large amounts—everybody can save in small amounts put aside daily. No one is above saving.

Call and get one of these banks for yourself and children. They will help you to save money, and the use of them costs you nothing.

Depositors will please notice that any sums of money that they may not wish to deposit in the Home Savings banks, may be brought to the bank, deposited and credited on their pass books the same as on any ordinary savings account.

HOW YOU CAN MAKE MONEY. Not by keeping it in your house, for you are in danger of losing it by thieves. If you do not lose it in this way, still you are losing money because it is earning you nothing.

It is safe there—it is working for you, and you can get it out at frequent intervals; or when the sum grows large enough we will be pleased to help you invest it in something safe and sound.

NOTE FOR DEPOSITORS. These Home banks are delivered to customers locked, and can be opened for removal of deposits only at the Citizens' Savings bank. Call to see them.

During the past few weeks the police have been working assiduously on the case to complete their evidence. They claim to have several new witnesses, but the opinion prevails that nothing of importance has been turned up and that the case is destined to remain a mystery.

JUMPED OVERBOARD.

AND THE CREW OF THE HOPKINS DID NOT KNOW WHAT HAD BECOME OF HIM.

The officers on the Evansville packet John S. Hopkins have been notified of the drowning of a male passenger who jumped off the boat near Uniontown, Ky., a week from last Sunday. It is supposed to be have been William I. Threlkeld, of near Hampton, Livingston county, a cousin of the jailer at Smithland and of Attorney Mark Worten of Paducah.

Mr. Threlkeld boarded the boat at Carrsville en route to Louisville and the following morning arose and leaving his coat and watch in the office of the boat, disappeared, and has not been seen or heard of since.

Yesterday three men who were on the bank as the boat passed Uniontown reported that they saw the man jump overboard and drown.

It was at first reported that he was aboard the Pittsburg.

He has over 100 men in his company, bringing them from all parts of the world. Among them are the most celebrated marksmen and horsemen in the United States and Europe, as well as a company of female rough riders, soldiers from many countries, artillerymen with their cannon, and five bands.

Washington, D. C., April 30.—The national congress of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, now in session here, is the largest meeting in the history of the organization. Delegates are in attendance from New York, Illinois, Virginia, Indiana, Louisiana, Michigan, Missouri, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, California and other states. The gathering was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning in the banquet hall of the New Willard. There were addresses of welcome and a response by Walter S. Logan of New York, the president-general. Only routine business was transacted at the opening session and an early adjournment was taken to permit the visitors to enjoy a trip to places of interest in and about the national capital.

The gathering is to continue through the remainder of the week. The local society has made elaborate plans for the entertainment of the visitors. The program includes a reception by Mrs. Roosevelt to the women accompanying the delegates, excursions on the Potomac to Mount Vernon and a grand banquet Friday evening.

OVER 100.

GREAT INCREASE IN THE RED MEN OF PADUCAH.

The contest for new members of Otego Tribe, Red Men, which began the first of the month, ended last night and shows a net increase in membership of 106, which swells the number of members to nearly 200.

This is very gratifying and shows that the Red Men are growing rapidly in Kentucky and Paducah. It cannot be definitely told as yet which of the sides won the contest, but will be known Friday night at the regular meeting. The successful side will enjoy a banquet served by the defeated side.

The work of initiating the new members, which will be by class, will take place Friday night.

General Federation Delegates Meet at Los Angeles, Cal.

About 5000 Visitors to be Cared for and are Warmly Welcomed.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 30.—Smartly dressed women distinguished by bows and badges of light blue swam the streets of Los Angeles today. They are the delegates of the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. For forty-eight hours they have been pouring into the city, and the local railway officials estimate the number of visitors at not less than five thousand. Upon their arrival they have been met by the members of the reception committee and escorted to the Woman's club, where they have registered and been assigned to quarters. The visitors have found the latchstring hanging on the outside, and nothing has been left undone that would contribute to their comfort and entertainment.

Tomorrow is to be the opening day of the convention. The first session will not be held until the afternoon, as the morning is to be given up to the enjoyment of the floral carnival. Governor Gage is here to welcome the delegates, and altogether the convention promises to be the most enjoyable as well as the most notable in the history of the federation.

PATRIOTISM AND POLITICS.

The officers of our army are entitled to the support and sympathy of all patriotic people. They are not responsible for the war in the Philippines. As has been said before, the very men who are now most bitter in their denunciation of the administration of affairs in the Philippines and of the Republican party in general, and the papers that even go so far as to misquote members of congress in their efforts to malign the officers of our army, were principally to blame for the war which resulted in the acquisition of the Philippines. It was these same kind of men and journals that urged day after day a war with Spain, despite the efforts of President McKinley to go slowly, and peaceably settle the trouble, if possible; something that might have been done but for the attitude of the yellow press, the hysterical Democrats and the ferocious sentiment they aroused. The Philippines became ours by right of purchase. The semi-civilized barbarians who infest the Islands had no title to it, and are fighting simply because it is their nature, and they have little else to occupy their time. They know nothing about work, taking them as a class; food grows in trees the year around, and they will doubtless fight as long as there is anything to fight, or as long as they think they will stand a chance of getting more that way than by becoming domesticated.

Hence our soldiers are simply there to do their duty, and their duty is to obey orders and enforce the supremacy of American arms. They are there to fight, to kill, to burn, if necessary, or to do anything else that is deemed essential to the suppression of the insurrection. Our officers are there, and are better able to judge what is best to protect our soldiers and our flag than the loud-mouthed demagogues in congress, some of whom are a disgrace to their country, and are a reproach to the greatest law-making body on earth. When the war is over, if there are any of the treacherous insurrectionists left, we may try the policy of taming them with kind words and benevolent deeds, and converting them without the aid of the "water cure" or a few ounces of powder and lead. Until they are all dead, however, it will be a dangerous undertaking.

It is certain, however, that no congressman would dare say outside of congress what some of them are quoted as having said inside. The law protects them so far as what they say in congress is concerned, and it is a good thing for some of them. Our officers and soldiers are brave, loyal, and humane so far as it is possible to be in war, and when it requires drastic measures to solve unusually difficult problems, they usually do their duty as they see it, which does not justify their being alluded to as "dastardly villains." Men who do that sacrifice their patriotism for political effect, and at the same time attack defenceless officers far away from home who are "only doing their duty as they understand it, and who have been in the business long enough to understand it better than the dung-hills in congress who criticize them.

The Elks carnival is now little over two weeks off, and people should begin to think of decorating their buildings and homes. Paducah will have an immense throng of people to take care of, and we should do it right. The success of our last carnival has gone far and near, and there will be thousands more people here this year than last. Success always catches the people, and they expect and will get vastly more in Paducah this year than they got last. It behooves every citizen to go to the trouble and expense, both of which will be small, to decorate and make everything as attractive as possible. Those who desire to provide accommodations for the visitors during the week are also requested to send in their addresses to the Elks headquarters, so that there may be a way to direct visitors to quarters wherever possible. Everything is going to be on a bigger scale this year than last, and the effort on part of citizens as well as Elks should be bigger.

The ordinance to provide a system of street sprinkling is a good one, and will be indorsed for economy, comfort and improved sanitary conditions. The cost under such an ordinance will be to each property holder less than it costs for water rent alone where the streets are sprinkled with yard hose. It is estimated that the cost for the entire season will be about 10 cents a foot. The benefits to be derived can be appreciated only by those who have lived in cities where street sprinkling is done regularly by contract. It saves the streets, cools the atmosphere, lays the dust and improves the sanitary condition of a place. The contract is let to the lowest bidder, insuring the work's being done as cheaply as possible.

The so-called beef trust is a fake pure and simple. Local butchers who buy their own stock from the farmer or stock raiser say that meat is always high this time of the year, and it has often been higher than now. The increase is caused by a scarcity of cattle, by the high price of feed and the fact that some of the great government lands have been eaten clean, and this had had the effect of both raising feed by reason of the increased demand for it, and reducing the supply of good, marketable cattle, forcing the meat supply to be drawn from new and sometimes remote channels, as a consequence raising the price. Meat is high everywhere, in sections that have never known the influence of a trust, as well as in the cities.

It seems hard that a man who will pass a Confederate bill on another and secure $10 in money, which is virtually stealing, should go free, but the best way to avoid such things is not to swap good money for Confederate money. A person who practices this old fraud cannot be convicted of passing counterfeit money, because it is not counterfeit money. He cannot be arrested for obtaining money by false pretenses, as in nine cases out of ten he merely puts down the bill and collects the change, without making any pretense at all. He can not be called to account for larceny, as he does not secure the money except with the owner's knowledge and consent, so he usually gets the money and goes free.

The proper way to prevent race feeling is not by stirring it up.

LOOKED AFTER BY MOB.

Negro Who Shot a White Boy Was Hanged This Morning.

The Mob Took him by Force—Another Negroes Narrow Escape.

Brandenburg, Ky., April 30—Ernest Dewley, young negro tough, has forfeited his life for shooting and dangerously wounding Harry Dowell, a white boy, at Guston.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning a mob appeared at the jail and demanded the prisoner of the jailer, Tom Thornberry. The jailer refused, and the mob proceeded to batter down the door, taking the cell keys from the jailer by force.

The terror stricken negro was taken out and dragged half a mile from the city, followed by the entire mob, and hanged to the limb of a tree.

Ed Bradway, a negro murderer, who has been in the Jefferson county jail for the past two weeks for safe keeping, was to have been taken to Brandenburg for trial this morning. The deputy sheriff had him at the depot ready to take the train when he received a telephone message that a mob was at the depot waiting to lynch the prisoner. He then returned the prisoner to the jail and went to Brandenburg alone.

LETS OUT 500 MEN.

DENIED THAT GOVERNMENT PROSECUTION INFLUENCED THE ACTION.

Chicago, April 30—Five hundred employees of the packing firm of Libby, McNeill and Libby have been released owing to "dull times." They were given their discharges Saturday night, but the fact did not become generally known till today.

Supt. Morrow, of Libby, McNeill and Libby, said that the proposed government investigation of the packing business had nothing to do with the letting of the employees out, and that the plant would by no means be closed.

"It is not unusual for the meat business to grow comparatively dull at this season," he said.

BRIDGE CONTRACT.

HOLMES OF CHATTANOOGA TO REPAIR N. O. AND ST. L. BRIDGES.

Nashville, April 30.—Luther McDonald, chief engineer of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad today awarded to W. S. Holmes of Chattanooga the contract for replacing the masonry of the bridges which were washed away by the recent flood. The work to be done is the construction of piers at Garrison Fork, Stone's river and Duck river, all of which is to be completed by September 15.

TO STOP RAILWAY COLLISIONS.

Plan to Utilize the Wireless Telegraphy of Marconi.

Marconi of wireless telegraph fame has a plan of utilizing his system for the absolute prevention of collision accidents on railroads, and the arrangement he proposes could be installed on every railroad in the country at a less expense than any other form of safety devices or signals. The fact that he has given considerable thought to the matter is important for the public confidence is strong in a man of his scientific attainments, but the proof he offers that his plan is simple, cheap and practical in its operations at all times gives it a greater significance.

As we all know, Marconi has devised the means to detect the vibrations set up by the sparking of an induction coil. More than that he is able to do, for he can so arrange his transmitting apparatus that only a certain length of ether wave shall be sent out, or, more properly speaking, a certain arrangement of the transmitting apparatus will send out only one constant length of wave. Another arrangement will send out another length of wave, and so on to almost infinity, since the different rates of vibration possible for these kinds of ether waves vary from hundreds of thousands to billions per second. The difficulty has previously been with the receiving apparatus.

It was necessary to get each separate receiver so arranged that it would respond only to the vibrations sent out by a particular transmitter. This difficulty Marconi has already overcome. Apply the principle now to use on moving trains. As it has been shown, in the case of sending messages the vibrations are sent out in the order of Morse code words. It would be simple enough to keep the transmitter in operation all the time, provided the battery power was renewed when necessary. — Leslie's Weekly.

GAME OF CHESS DOES NOT PAY.

Earnings of the World's Best Players Surprisingly Small.

Appropos of the great chess tournament which has attracted attention at Monte Carlo, there is no game in the world at which it is so difficult to make money as chess. Chess is unquestionably the most scientific pastime in existence and requires a very high degree of intelligence to excel at it, but professional chess-players are a singularly ill-paid body of men. Putting aside jockeys—who are more or less millionaires—fourth-rate players of many games earn far more than the most distinguished chess players.

Manuel Lasker, the world's greatest chess player, has lately been appointed to a professorship of mathematics at Owens College, Manchester, and Dr. Farnsch makes a comfortable income as a medical man in Germany, but their income has nothing to do with their chess. Many of the competitors in the Monte Carlo tournament are men of world-wide fame, but most of them are glad to compete for prizes of which the highest is only worth a few hundred pounds, and such tournaments only occur once in two or three years. A professional chess-player's earnings for the most part consist of such fees as he receives for teaching chess or from playing exhibition games at a local club and any prizes he may win at a chess tournament, and the former of these fees often amount to less in a year than a decent billiard player would receive in a month.

DELAYING THE QUARANTINE.

New York, April 30.—Although the season of the year has arrived when quarantine is usually established against Cuba, Health Officer Doty said today he had decided not to enforce restrictions against that country at this time. "Cuba is free from yellow fever," said he, "and unusual care is being taken to keep it free. I shall be guided entirely by the reports in future from Havana and other ports in Cuba. Quarantine regulations against Cuba are a great abstraction to commerce, and I wish to place as little hindrance to free intercourse as will be consistent with protection of the public health."

A Fatal Objection.

The Brussel's man's invention by which talkers over a telephone may see each other will not become popular. The usefulness of the telephone would be largely destroyed if, when one called up a woman he had to wait till she made her toilet before she answered. — Louisville Courier-Journal.

Great Project in Manitoba.

A CARD TO THE BUSINESS MEN.
Paducah Typographical Union has broken faith with me through the influence of a few bum printers who cannot hold a job in a first class shop, and who work in surrounding towns for $6 to $7 a week and demand $12 to $14 for the same in Paducah. They have expressed themselves on the street "they would run my plant out of the city." I do not believe the fair minded business men of Paducah want to see capital run out of the city because it will not bow to the labor bosses.

I will continue to run my office as in the past two years, as an independent shop, treat all alike and give the best work for the lowest price.

EXCELLENT RESULTS.

Y. M. C. A. Buildings are Ornaments as Well as Benefits.

Good Work Done in Cities—Citizens Here are Beginning to Understand Better.

A great many people who are asked to contribute to the support of the new Y. M. C. A. home move do not know that the move is principally for the betterment of the city and are furthermore unacquainted with what has been done in other cities and especially in smaller cities than Paducah. The following is a few facts about the railroad Y. M. C. A. at Corbin, Ky., which will prove interesting to all and will also enable them to see that the move is general and that the association has received and is now receiving the support and favor of all the big industries and corporations throughout the country.

The cost of this building was $6,500. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad company gave largely toward the cost price—the railroad men giving generously. Corbin has a population of 1,600, composed principally of railroad men and their families.

The railroad department buildings include in their appointments reading room, parlors, correspondence room, sleeping rooms, bath rooms and restaurants. The department at Corbin is directly under the supervision of the state committee. To one hundred and seventy-five of these departments the contributing railroad companies gave last year for maintenance $205,000.

The following are a few facts about the Battle Creek Y. M. C. A. which will be a better comparison as Battle Creek is a few thousands smaller than Paducah.

The contract price for this building was $36,500. Mr. Charles Willard was largely instrumental in making the building possible. The building will be modern in its appointments, and includes gymnasium, bath rooms, fine swimming pool, evening educational class rooms, parlors, rooms for junior department and a number of sleeping rooms for young men. The population of Battle Creek is 22,000.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.
SEVERAL APPLICANTS FOR THE POSITION—NO APPOINTMENT

Quite a number of persons are anxious for the position of public administrator, an office made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Alex Kirkland, who was recently appointed city auditor.

Among them are Squire J. P. Holt, Mr. Ed Ware and the new Banking and Trust company that will soon occupy the Bernhard building. County Judge Lightfoot has not yet made up his mind whom he will appoint.

OFFICER CHARGED WITH MURDER.
McMinnville, April 30—Deputy Sheriff John Akers was arrested today, charged with the murder of Jesse Turner at a circus at Morrison a few days ago. Turner's friends say he was killed without cause, while Akers says he acted in self-defense.

HARRIMAN'S STRONG HAND.

SECURES DOMINATING INTEREST IN NEW NATIONAL RAILROAD OF MEXICO.

New York, April 30—The composition of the board of directors of the new National Railroad of Mexico, which recently took over the Mexican National railroad, made public today, would seem to indicate the Harriman interests have secured, if not control, at least a dominating interest in the property. The new American directors are: E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific company; George J. Gould, president of the Missouri Pacific system; W. B. Leeds, president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; L. E. Love, president of the Baltimore and Ohio; Martin Erdman and Gordon MacDonald of Speyer and Co.; Felix M. Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb and Co.; F. B. Drake, Henry W. Taft of Strong and Cadwallader, counsel for the road, and William G. Raoul, president of the board.

The Mexican directors are: E. W. Brown, William Landa, Y. Escandon, Emilio Velasco and Gabriel Morton, vice president of the road, all of the City of Mexico.

MILLIONS OF DUST.
STORY OF RICH TREASURE FIELD DISCOVERED IN ALASKA.

Portland, Ore., April 30—According to the Home Nugget of February 11, which has arrived from the north, coming by registered mail via Dawson, a very important discovery has been made there. A New York syndicate had been for eighteen months quietly prospecting the Tundra, between Nome and Penny rivers. The result of the work accomplished, the paper declares, is startling. It shows that millions of gold dust are deposited in the vast Tundra plains which skirt the Behring coast.

CENSORSHIP IN RUSSIA.
St. Petersburg, April 30—Some time ago a provincial newspaper appeared almost entirely blank, to illustrate, by a drastic example, the difficulty which the censorship places on the press in Russia. Sometimes the censor omitted to "blue pencil" the title or the signature of an article and the editor printed everything that was left. The minister of the interior did not take the matter as a joke and he forbade the publication of the paper in question for eight months.

while not mysterious or miraculous in its curative qualities, is a simple formula prescribed by the best physicians for disorders of the digestive organs. Just little Tabules, easy to take, easy to buy and quick to act. If your trouble is Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Heartburn, and the like, no need of calling a physician. Ripans Tabules contain exactly what he would tell you to take. Permanent cure follows a fair trial. No uncertainty about it.

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

There is scarcely any condition of ill health that is not benefited by the occasional use of a R. I. P. A. N. S. Tabule, and the price, ten for five cents, does not bear them down any more or justify any use in entering the list that are easily cured. A family bottle containing six tabules is sold for 50 cents. For children the chocolate coated ones, 10 for 25 cents, are recommended. For sale by druggists.

MAY BE REINSTATED

THE RESIGNATION OF A CAR INSPECTOR CAUSES TROUBLE.

There is considerable talk in railroad circles in regard to what will be done with Car Inspector Elmore's resignation, which was mentioned last week. Inspector Elmore is considered the best on the entire Illinois Central system, and his friends claim he was discharged through spite. It seems he talked a little "short" to one of the under officials of the superintendent of machinery when he was here, and in a few days was notified that his resignation had been accepted.

It is fully expected that when the facts become known he will be put back without delay and those responsible for his resignation reprimanded for injuring the company's service to gratify a petty spite.

CHIEF OF THE MAIL SERVICE PAYS A FLYING VISIT.

Captain Harry Jenks, chief of the railway mail service in Kentucky, was in the city this morning on business and spent an hour or two at the post-office. He came up from Fulton and remained until the 7:40 train left. The service in Kentucky is not to be excelled anywhere.

CASE DISMISSED.

The case against John Bulger and John Gaynor, charged in the Livingston circuit court with rape, was yesterday thrown out of court at Smithland. They were in a crowd that took Edith Mae Beasley, a 14 year old girl up about Livingston Point and kept her a day and night. They were first arrested here and it was decided that the McCracken authorities had no jurisdiction.

WANTS A LOCATION.

The Commercial club has been advised that the owners of a wood working plant desire to know what inducements would be offered it to locate one of its branch houses here. It has eight, working from 75 to 100 men in each, in as many different cities and one of the plants was recently destroyed by fire.

BAD BLOOD TELLS

You have the most convincing evidence of this fact every day. Otherwise beautiful faces marred with black heads, blotches and pimples, muddy or sallow complexions, and red, rough or oily skins are some of the most common and conspicuous symptoms of bad blood.

You can hide these ugly and humiliating blemishes by glazing them over with face powders and rouge, and the rough and discolored skin is made white and smooth by a lavish use of cosmetics, but these artificial complexions and false skins only last for a day, when the eruptions and spots stand out as bare and brazen as ever. The natural beauty and smoothness of the skin cannot be permanently restored by the use of external applications, for the reason that these skin diseases are due to some poison or humor in the blood that must be antidoted and eliminated before the skin can or will return to a healthy state. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. all impurities are expelled from the blood, the general health is invigorated, and all disfiguring and annoying eruptions promptly and permanently disappear from the skin, and it becomes as soft and smooth as ever.

Bad blood tells in many other ways. Itching and burning eruptions, rashes and sores, boils and carbuncles show the presence of some irritating poison or unhealthy matter in the blood, and these aggravating troubles will continue until the weak and slow circulation has been quickened and the deteriorated blood made rich and strong again. Some are born with bad blood, and it begins to tell in infancy; scrofulous affections, sore eyes, scalp diseases, nasal catarrh, stunted growth, brittle bones and soft, flabby muscles are some of the early manifestations of bad blood by inheritance. These symptoms, if neglected, may develop into some deep-seated and serious blood trouble later on in life, but the timely use of S. S. S. will check the disease in its incipency, remove all taint from the circulation, and the little sufferers grow into healthy manhood and womanhood.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

MRS. LAURA ADAMS, of Galveston, Tex., Praises Wine of Cardui.

this article. She suffered seven years before she secured relief. She knew what it was to be worn out and tired by nervous exhaustion. Mrs. Richard Jones of Glendene, Ky., corroborates her statement by saying:

"I am doing my own housework without any help and I did my washing last week and was not a bit tired. Before I took Wine of Cardui I used to lie down five or six times a day."

Mrs. M. S. Eaton, No. 808 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill., praises Wine of Cardui for the same reason Mrs. Adams does when Mrs. Eaton writes:

"I have been using Wine of Cardui for falling of the womb and have derived much benefit."

Mrs. Mattie A. Anderson, of Benton, La., was a great sufferer from irregular menstruation but she was cured by Wine of Cardui the same as Mrs. Adams. Mrs. Anderson writes:

"I have been a sufferer with irregular periods for three years. I tried everything that I heard would benefit me but was not relieved until I took Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught. Now I am in good health."

In the office of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., the manufacturers of Wine of Cardui, there are 10,000 such testimonials. These letters show that Wine of Cardui acts the same in all cases. This pure Wine perfectly regulates the menstrual flow and painless menstruation is the result. The freshness of health returns with the stoppage of the wasting drains. With such evidence as this before you, how can you allow your trouble to run on until you are past recovery? Wine of Cardui will not cure female diseases when they have developed into consumption. What else can happen when irregularities are sapping the blood and you let them go on? But do not let them go on. Stop them now. Wine of Cardui never fails in an uncomplicated case. Your druggist sells $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and you should be taking this remedy in your home now. Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui and get the same benefit and cure from it Mrs. Adams did. If you think you need advice write to The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Company, and tell them your symptoms and a letter of advice will be sent you.

Colfax Chesser, of Fredericksburg, Tex., writes:

"Wine of Cardui is the best medicine that ever was made for women."

Ida M. Vaughn, Fearis, Ky., says:

"Wine of Cardui did me more good than all the doctors' medicines."

WINE OF CARDUI

The experience of a million women shows that Wine of Cardui relieves female ills.

SUN'S DAILY STORY

POLITICS AT MAMDALE.

BY W. H. DUFFY.

(Copyright, 1902, by Daily Story Pub. Co.)

All during the sixty days strenuous efforts had been made on the part of the majority to elect a senator, but during the campaign of the fall before it had been openly stated that the legislator of the coming session who did not go home "fixed" for life would be foolish. Both sides were expected to use enormous sums of money, and the senatorship was expected to be the prize of the man who was willing to pay the most for it. This was the sentiment of a large number of people during the campaign.

Long before the first ballot for the senatorship had been cast on the second Tuesday of the session, the leaders of the majority had decided that as they had elected a majority of the members of the body, there would be no necessity for them to buy the votes already theirs. They held that the men could not have the "gall" to go back on the constituents who had elected them, and besides, a clean election would give their party a large amount of prestige, as it would serve to give a knockout blow to the rumors of corrupt uses of money in legislative halls, when their party was in control.

When the first ballot was cast, the votes of the majority were badly scattered, but day by day, as the balloting proceeded, and the session came nearer to an end, it was evident that the votes of the majority were simmering down to two candidates, but it was also evident that this state of affairs was the result of the clever wire-pulling of the opposition, as the candidates were old rivals and one would never give way to the other.

The minority, on the other hand, had been hanging closely together, and it was clear that they were being maneuvered by a clever political schemer. During the early part of the session that had cast their 35 votes for former Representative Moore, a man who had borne a spotless reputation, but on the 45th day of the sitting they switched and cast their vote solidly for a man who had the reputation of being the smoothest politician in the state—John Flaherty—who since his defeat for Congress four years before had held a fat federal position and had built up a political machine powerful in its environment. When the minority switched to Flaherty the leaders of the other side began to look worried, for they knew that the skillful politician would stop at nothing to secure an election.

Thus it went on during the remaining days of the session, enough members to cause a deadlock or elect the minority candidate, remaining stubborn and mean, on account of not receiving the price for their vote.

The session had just taken a five-minute recess, after a twelve hours' sitting, and the members were just getting back to their seats from the saloon across the street. The floor of the House was crowded with lobbyists, for the minority who had been brought from all parts of the state to lend "moral courage" to the men who were to be purchased, and was immediately whispered around that Flaherty had fixed the insurgent members of the majority and that he would be elected on the next ballot.

The session was called to order, and an intense quiet seemed to come over the packed throng.

"We will now proceed with the two hundred and eighteenth ballot for the election of a United States senator to represent the state," began the president.

"I demand a call of the house," shouted a senator who was seated with the majority. Everyone knew that this was merely a subterfuge to gain time, for it could be told at a glance that every seat was full. Everyone wondered what was to be the call began three leaders of the majority were seen to approach each other and hold a hurried consultation. The clerk rushed through the call with marvelous rapidity.

"The members of the joint assembly are all present, Mr. President," he announced.

"The sergeant-at-arms will see that each member remains in his seat unless he is addressing the chair," announced the presiding officer, as the members began to stir around, and as the three majority leaders took their respective desks, their faces still clouded with intense anxiety. This was the condition on the entire majority side of the house. On the other side, each member seemed to be struggling with an almost uncontrollable excitement.

The roll-call began. The first name on the list was Anderson, a stalwart minority man.

"Flaherty!" he shouted.

"Axtell," called the clerk, and all eyes were turned on the veteran majority senator. Axtell was not a leader in any sense of the term, but he was the senior member of the party, and his advice was always listened to with the greatest respect. He was a safe counselor.

"I wish to explain my vote," announced the gray-haired lawmaker as he rose from his chair, and everybody listened as he began to speak. He first referred in touching terms to the strong attachments that had sprung up between the members during their service in the session, and then expressed his sorrow that the bitter struggle on the election of a senator had brought about such hard feelings. He then took up the issue of the campaign and related how the majority had been elected pledged to send a man to the federal senate who was in sympathy with their political ideas. At this the recalcitrant members of the majority began to squirm in their seats, and before he had gone far they were looking downcast.

"You say that if we select a democrat who is suitable to you, you will help elect him," he cried, turning to them. "Who is this man, I demand? Do you mean this statement, or is it but a miserable subterfuge, by which you expect to wait until the last moment and then betray our party? This is your scheme, so it has been openly stated in these halls, and you have not had the courage to deny it. Do you think, men, that you are nery enough to go back to your democratic constituents, after having helped elect Flaherty to the federal senate?

"You say that if we select a man who is suitable to you he will be elected. You know that the man you are supporting can never be elected, and I do not believe that the man for whom I have been casting my ballot can at this late hour be successful. Now is your opportunity to prove whether you are men or are cattle, to be bought by the highest bidder. Name some man, I say, and prove your assertions. Who is he?"

Everybody listened as if expecting an answer, but none came, the members to whom these burning remarks had been addressed continued to carry their half-ashamed, half-defiant look.

"Who is he?" repeated the speaker. The silence became painful, but still no reply was forthcoming. Just as the awful quiet seemed to reach the point where it was unbearable, a shrill, sharp voice was heard.

"Why don't you elect Hines?" This seemed to strike the popular chord, and a great hurrah for the old-time ex-governor went up from the majority side. The members who were supposed to have been purchased raised his voice to its highest pitch and yelled to the clerk:

"Record my vote for Hines."

The excitement quieted a bit and the vote proceeded. Every man who had been elected with the majority cast his vote for the big-hearted ex-governor. At its conclusion, amid a deafening roar, the clerk announced the result: Hines, 48; Flaherty, 35.

With a shout the president announced the election of Hines, and then gave two sharp raps with his mahogany gavel.

"The hour of midnight having arrived, I now declare this session adjourned sine die," he said.

An hour later, the house was practically deserted. All had gone except two or three members, who were still packing their belongings. A newsboy entered with the morning "Enterprise," telling all about the election of the senator. Each member remaining bought a copy, and the boy lingered a minute as he watched them tie up a number of large bundles of paper.

"Aint it funny that you fellows never thought about electing Hines until I hollered it out from the back corner of the lobby," he said.

The lawmakers looked at the ragged boy, but said nothing.

The Theater Brougham.

In the West End at night there is a steady increase in the hum of electric broughams. They glide up to theaters one after the other, neat, well appointed, no longer piloted by land marines, and eminently the right vehicle for use at night, when even the most exemplary of coachmen generally maltreats his horses.—Court Journal.

Girls Usually Do.

"Have you Moore's poems?" inquired the sweet young thing.

"I think so, miss. I'll look 'n a minute," replied the clerk in the bookstore. "By the way, here's a fine new story, just out. It's called 'Just One Kiss,' and—"

"I want Moore," she interrupted haughtily.

Killing in Tennessee Reported Here This Morning.

Johnson Twomey Killed by his Brother-in-law at Lobeville.

News of a killing in Tennessee reached the city this morning. A telephone message was received by J. R. Smith and Son, the wholesale grocers, from Lobeville, Tenn., stating that Johnson Twomey, a well known merchant, and a customer of the firm, had been killed by Ad Coble, his brother-in-law, or half brother, it could not be learned which.

A knife was used, and the victim's throat was cut, death being instantaneous. The cause could not be learned. One report said it was caused by gaming, and the other that an old feud caused it. They used to be business partners, but disagreed and each was in business for himself, and both were customers of Smith and Son.

An order was to have been shipped to the dead man tonight on the Clyde when the telephone message was received, and the goods were taken from the wharf back to the store.

TURN FOR THE WORSE.

ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN'S RESTLESSNESS AND WEAKNESS INDUCE EXTRA PRECAUTIONS.

New York, April 30—Archbishop Corrigan's condition took a turn for the worse yesterday and though Father Curley, the prelate's secretary, declared the restlessness and weakness of the archbishop had been anticipated, extra precautions were taken to insure the patient's recovery. He is very weak. Father Curley said: "There is nothing in the fact of his restlessness and weakness of today to warrant apprehension. We anticipated slow recovery because of his extremely weak condition. The pneumonia has almost left him, only a little part of the bottom of the right lung at the base being still affected. The physicians really anticipated this relapse, but they had hoped it would not be so pronounced. He will recover, but his recovery, as the doctors say, will necessarily be slow."

NOW HE IS GOOD.

AND PERHAPS GEN. MILES WILL BE ALLOWED TO STAY IN THE ARMY.

Washington, April 30—It is now believed that no further steps will be taken by President Roosevelt in the matter of retiring Lieut. Gen. Miles. So long as Gen. Miles continues as good as he has been lately, when he has been very reserved, the case will probably be allowed to remain as it is, unless Gen. Miles himself desires to revive it.

TO RUN FOR OFFICE.

Frankfort, April 30 — Attorney Charles C. Marshall, of Shelbyville, has informed his friends here that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in the Shelby district. Frank Peak, the present attorney, is a candidate for circuit judge.

OMNIBUS BILL.

Passed the House by an Overwhelming Vote Yesterday.

This Bill is the Appropriation for Paducah's Addition to the Government Building.

Washington, April 30—Under a special order which allowed three hours debate, but which cut off all opportunity of amendment, the house yesterday passed an omnibus public building bill which will distribute $15,820,450 among 174 cities. The bill provides for seventy-seven new buildings and sites, six buildings on sites already purchased, seventeen buildings on donated sites and fifty-eight increases in appropriations for buildings already authorized. It also provides for the purchase of sixteen sites. The majority for the bill was so overwhelming that only nine members backed a demand for the ayes and noes. There was some criticism of the method by which it was proposed to pass the bill without opportunity for amendment, which Mr. Mercer, chairman of the committee, answered by stating that if the bill had been subject to amendment the appropriations carried by it would have been increased to $60,000,000.

SEATS FOR VIOLA ALLEN.

THE ADVANCE SALE WILL OPEN ON TUESDAY MORNING.

The sale of seats for the engagement of Miss Viola Allen, "In the Palace of the King," will open at The Kentucky on next Tuesday at 9 a. m. As this will undoubtedly prove, as it really is, the most important theatrical engagement of the season, it would be wisdom in those desiring seats to be on hand early. The house is almost sure to be sold out on the first day of the sale. Miss Allen is the one actress on the American stage whose delightful personality appeals to all grades of theatre-goers. She is as popular with the cultured and refined as with the gallery god who chews peanuts in lieu of bon-bons. And this is all the more singular when it is considered that this actress did not rise to fame on the wings of sensationalism. It is an encouraging sign of the times, too, that an actress who is a lady, and conducts herself as such, should enjoy a greater vogue than any much advertised and bediamonded soubrette chanteuse. It would appear that we were hearkening backward to the good old times when merit outweighed the nonsensical and meretricious.

VALISE FOUND.

MANUSCRIPT OF CAPT. DOSS' BOOK WILL NOT BE LOST.

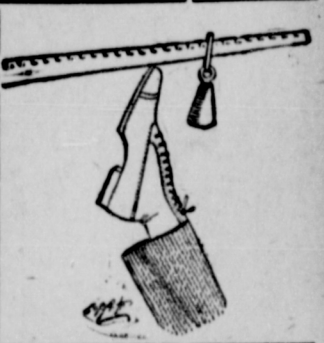

The valise belonging to Captain Sylvester Doss was yesterday found near where his body was recovered the day of the Pittsburg disaster. It contained the manuscript of the book he was engaged in writing on the subject of "Western River Steamers," and the unfortunate man was evidently trying to save the results of months or perhaps years of labor when he lost his life.
